Note for orders

Subject :- Petition from Venkatarangiah, Godely now Inspector at Hunsur, claiming Rs 61, being the balance of his pay &c for the temporarily period he was officiating as Head Purbathagar of the Sri Narayanaswami Temple at Melkota in 1893

The petitioner for sometime Venkatarangiah was the Head Purbathagar of the Sri Narayanaswami Temple at-

at Melkote. In 1892 he was transferred to the Excise Department as Sub-Inspector and Sivanandachar (the present ~~Sarpat~~ Peshkar) was appointed as Head Parpathegar. In August 1893, a theft was committed in the Sri Narayanaswami Temple, when Sivanandachar resigned his appointment.
It was then thought that Venkataramajah's services would be more useful in detecting the culprits, and he was accordingly re-transferred temporarily to do duty as Head Parpathegar of the Temple at which he did for 10 months at Melkote from November 1893 to August 1894. He was then sent to work again to his appoint-ment in the Excise Dept-

-n,
and Sivasundaram, who had before resigned his appointment, was re-appointed.

The present claim of Venkatarangiah for Rs 61 of his temporary charge relates to the period between from November 1893 to August 1894.

In November 1895, the Dy Commissioner of the Mysore District submitted a bill for the allowance claimed by Venkatarangiah for the period he did duty as Head Carpenter-gar. But the late Mysore Secretary-in his letter no 895 dated 12th April 1895, observed that, as the said Venkataramajah was in receipt of a substantive pay of Rs 20 + a horse allowance of Rs 10, as Toddy Inspector, at the time he was deputed for duty in the Temple, he might be considered entitled to his substantive pay of Rs 20 for the time he acted as the Head Parpatyagar, even though the pay fixed for the office was only Rs 16, and that, as regards the horse allowance of Rs 10, the question was under consideration of Govt, if he Venkataramajah was also entitled to draw the same for the period he was in charge of the temple, he not having having been maintained a horse, for which the allowance in question was specially intended. The Inspn Secretary further added as follows:—

"But during the Inspn Supt's inspection of the Temple last week, it has been ascertained from the examination of the Temple accounts, that Venkatarangiah has already, prior to his reverting to duty in the Excise Dept, drawn, without any authority whatever a total allowance of Rs 276 from the Temple

Funds. This was highly irregular of him. The present Head Pariahthegar's Report on the subject- No 5-19 dated 6th April 1895- is herewith forwarded in original for your information.

2. cc From the Vernacular papers it is noted that Venkataramayah was doing duty in the Melkota Temple from the 16th November 1893 to the end of August 1894. The pay due to him for his period, calculating at Rs 20 a month, his substantive pay as Toddy Inspector, will amountto

cc

to Rs 170; and Venkata-
-rangiah has overdrawn
Rs 106 from the Temple Funds. I am therefore to request that you will be so good as to recover this amount from him forthwith and report the same to Government."

With reference to the above the Dy Commissioner
(a) reported that, as Venkata--rangiah was relieved of his duties as Godaly Inspector on the 1st November 1893, and as he was in charge of the Temple till the end of August 1894, he ought to and as he did not away his horse

being told to be on temple duty for a short time only, he was entitled to his pay and horse allowance for the above period of ten months at Rs 20 + 10, and also to the mileage of Rs 31* from Mahavalli to Melkote and back. The Dy Commr further suggested that the advance of Rs 276 already drawn by Venkatarangiah might be deducted from the total ⊗ sum of Rs 331 as detailed in the margin and the balance viz Rs 55 paid to him.

In reply, the Dy Commr was asked to recover immediately the amount of Rs 106 being the balance against him and was informed that his ~~informed that~~ invited to the previous orders on the subject.

In pursuance of the above orders, the sum of Rs 106 was recovered from Venkatarangiah and credited to the Temple Funds.

Thereupon, the Govt-Comptroller was consulted on the admissibility of Venkatarangiah's claim for horse allowance. That officer was of opinion that his claim for the allowance * was in-admissible as his duty did did not require him to travel; was also of opinion

but he ~~further observed~~ that, as the said Venkatarangiah seemed to have maintained his horse, the allowance might be granted on production of a certificate to that effect.

The required certificate having been produced accordingly the allowance of Rs 100 for the 10 months at 10 Rs per month was sanctioned (Vide Govt-Pro No 372-3 dated 12th September 1900) & the charge was ordered to be met from the funds at the credit of the temple.

The said Venkatarangiah now claims Rs 61 on the ground that-

Head, out of the amount .X. of Rs 331 due to him as details in the margin, he received only Rs 270 (i.e. Rs 170 advance taken by him + Rs 100 Horse allowance sanctioned in Govt Do no 372-3 dated 12th September 1900), the balance being Rs 61. This claim seems to be admissible in accordance with the recommendation of the ⊗ Dy Commr. But the details for Rs 31 being the amount of mileage claimed and supported by the Dy Commr, are not known.

Sir

With reference to your Kanarese Communication No 665 of 11th Feb.y 1895 forwarding a bill for the allowance claimed by ~~Toddy Inspector~~ Toddy Inspector of Palavalli Venkatrangiah for the period he did duty as Hd Parapatteyar of the Melkote Temple from Nov.r 1893 to Aug.t 1894 I am to observe that as Venkatrangiah was already in receipt of a substantive pay of Rs 20 + a horse allowance of Rs 10 as Toddy Inspector at the time he was deputed for duty in the Melkote Temple, he may be considered entitled

Sir,

With reference to your letter No. 895 of the 12th April 1895 about the pay &c due to Toddy Inspector Venkatrangiah for the period he did duty as paipathegar of the Government temple at Mélkoté in the Seeremungalatna taluk, I beg to state as follows:—

2. The toddy Inspector was relieved of his duties at Malavalli on 1st November 1893. He reported himself for temple work on the 3rd idem at French Rocks. On the 4th he began to take charge of the temple. The transfer of charge was completed on the 16th. He remained in charge of the temple till the end of August 1894 and was then sent back to his duty as toddy Inspector. Thus he has to be paid from the temple funds from the 1st of November 1893 to the end of August 1894. As toddy Inspector he was drawing pay at 20 Rs: and horse allowance at 10 Rs: per month. As he was told that he was to be on temple duty for a short time only he says that he did not sell away his horse, but maintained it. He therefore claims horse allowance. He also claims mileage for the journey made from Malavalli to Mélkoté and back. At 4 annas per mile, this will amount to Rupees 31. I think that his claim is valid. His pay and horse allowance for the above period of 10 months amount to Rupees 300. Add to this the mileage of Rupees 31. The total amount of Rupees 331 is due to him from the temple funds. He has drawn from those funds Rupees 276. Permission is solicited to draw the balance of Rupees
